

Davis Hammer

Architecture

Email
Phone

dlhammer8@gmail.com
336.312.2852

I am currently an architecture student at the University of Washington in the masters program. Born in Greensboro, North Carolina, I lived, worked, and studied in the state until the summer of 2010 when I made the trip to Seattle.

Education

University of Washington

Masters in Architecture

2010 - present

currently in the third quarter of the 2+ March program

North Carolina State University

BEDA

2004 - 2008

completed four years in the undergraduate architecture program learning to critically approach design, also participate as a TA during summer design camp

Experience

Tonic Design | Tonic Construction

designer/ construction manager

2007 - 2010

superintendent of construction for a private residence, work on a pavilion at the North Carolina Museum of Art and on several residences and competitions

Bell/ Glazener Design Group

landscape designer

2006

held an internship position working on landscape designs for the UNCG campus and a private residence

Travel

Prague, Czech Republic

2007

studied in the city for three months including several trips to other cities in Eastern Europe and preceded by a month of travel across Western Europe

Skills

Adobe Creative Suite 5

Google Sketchup

Powercadd

Autodesk Autocad 2008

Rhinoceros 4.0

Microsoft Office Suite